Yes, I think it's a good idea but feel free to see what Bill thinks. Thank you!

Thanks, Trish! I hope you had a good mini-vacation too!

Thanks for covering social and “whatever” while I’m out next week! I’m off today starting at noon. I’ll be back to work on August 24 and I plan to send the newsletter out that week, so if you could send events to me and David next week, that would be great.

Have a good weekend.

Bonnie

Hi Trish and Bill,

I'll be on leave beginning on Friday, August 14, at noon. I'll plan to do social tomorrow morning so I think we'll only need Trish to back me up next week.

We have been told to not do any social outreach on any topic other than the Gold King Mine spill through Monday, August 17. Jessica Orquina will be in touch with the us on Monday to let us know if the regions impacted by the spill can resume social outreach on other topics. I asked her to include both of you in that communication.

If we do resume social outreach on other topics, we should try to do outreach on "Back to School Week of Action," next week. Scott Stollman is trying to get information/content on that and we may see it from HQ as well. I can also usually find it on HQ's accounts.

As a reminder, you have to use your own Facebook account to post on our EPA Facebook page, "on a page you manage." To post on Twitter, use our log in name, pacificsouthwestnews@epa.gov and our password, r9tweet.

Thanks for covering social next week!

Bonnie
